SUPERIOR COURT NOTES

The ending of the legal holidays, extending over a month, resulted in a very busy day Monday in the Superior Court circles as regards large calendars in both departments and the filing of many new suits, probate matters and other documents.

The special holiday question does not rest well upon the legal mind, and until the Supreme Court shall have passed upon the matter the attorneys of the Sonoma County bar are going to be a little leary in dealing with matters involving money, property titles, etc. The resume of the calendar day proceedings is as follows:

In Judge Denny's department the trials of the suits were set as follows: Carrie Washington, for December 4; Niroad vs. Farrell, for January 7; John Cooper vs. M. L. In Judge Seawell's department the suit of Johnson vs. Schmidt was reset for trial for February 18.

Default was entered in the suit of Phillips vs. Frisbie and the matter was transferred to Department Two.

The will of Julia A Miller was admitted to probate.

How to Secure and Maintain True Prosperity.

(II Chronicles Xx. verse 20.)

A Thanksgiving Day discourse, delivered in the M. E. Church, Sonoma, on Nov. 28th, 1907.

The Bible shows that Jehovah has taken infinite pains to reveal Himself to humanity and to impress upon the world His claims as Creator, World Governor, Sovereign, Father, Friend and God. In Israel, a kind of Divine feudalism existed. The land had been allotted to His people, but they in return were to render Him such service as He required and a part of the fruits of the land. Three times a year the people had to appear before the Lord in Jerusalem to celebrate certain great feasts and events which God would ever keep fresh in their minds, events which signalized the Divine interposition and favor on their behalf.

The Feast of the Passover was celebrated at the beginning of the grain harvest, when the first fruits of the land were brought and presented to the Lord. His past was also a memorial of their deliverance from the land of Egypt and the tyranny of Pharaoh. The feast of Penticost came fifty days later at the end of the grain harvest, and the Feast of Tabernacles was celebrated at the end of the vintage season when the harvest of all the fruits was gathered.

It was compulsory on all men who were not disqualified or incapacitated to appear before God at these several feasts in recognization of their indebtedness to Him for the fruits of the soil. When they came, they came not empty-handed. They carried with them thank offerings and free will offerings.

The Jewish conception of the highest good was the fullnes of all earthly goods in the practice of righteousness in the reign of the Holy One of Israel. God had impressed it upon them that material prosperity was only to be secured and maintained by the observance of His Holy Laws and the recognition of His claims en the lands and the maintainance of the temple worship. Natural prosperity was inseparably bound up with Jehovah worship.

This was clearly taught by Moses in the 28th Chapter of Deuteronomy where we have catalogued the blessings and the curses and the conditions on which they hinge. Also the same part is emphasized by the Lord to Joshua. "This book of the Law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous and then shalt thou have great success."

Jehosaphat, the King, who gives utterance to our text, does not merely repeat the words of the prophet who had spoken to Him, but he speaks ont of what he knows by actual experience. As a young man he had been highly favored of the Lord and had greatly prospered. but he joined affiuity with Ahab who was the enemy of his Lord and righteousness. Thus began for the young King, moral and spiritual decay. Later with Ahab's son, who resembled his father in simple ways, he built a navy for commerce to go to Tarshish on a money-making expedition but these ships were all broken at Ezion Geber. This was a judgment of the Lord, the sacred Chronicler tells, upon the young King for two unholy alliance with simple men and their practices. He now knows there is no real prosperity where God's laws are set aside. He has broken the alliance, repented of his ways, turned again to God, is assurred of his favor and help, and althoug enemies have multiplied themselves against him and his country he knows he can rely on God's help and exhorts his people to do the same. "Believe in the Lord your God, so shall you be established," that is rendered firm, secure, strong, invincible. Believe His prophets so shall ye prosper. "Not only shall ye mantain your present standard of wealth and happiness. but it shall be increased to you."

Prosperity is a thing greatly to be desired. It is said that one of Emerson's ancestors was in the habit of praying that none of his posterity might be rich. It is easy to imagine a man offering a prayer like that for one of his posterity, although it would be a shabby thing to do, but you will hardly find a sane man offering such a prayer as that for himaelf.

Terrestrial prosperity is one of God's benedictions. It widens the range of man's physical enjoyments. The physical side of the world is ours. Nature is a vast delightful ministry to our senses. When our ships return laden with all good things, we should eat and drink and give glory to God.

One writer complains that whilst he was walking on the beach drinking in with raptures the beauties of the ocean, the tanned fishermen had nothing to say to each other but "How's fish?" But is this insensibility to be wondered at? Poverty makes life a burden with many such as those poor fishermen. They have no time for anything else. If the fish fails they are at starvations door. Fish or bread is of far more importance than natural beauty to men in such conditions. Relieve them of this struggle for existence and they, too, will soon take a different view of nature and of life too.

Material prosperity gives freer play to our intellectual life. The period of Solomon's great prosperity was also a time of great intellectual activity. Our most prosperous periods of English history was during the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and this was the period that turned out the greatest galaxy of intellectual giants of any in her history. When prosperity abounds book unclasp, libraries are plentiful, colleges abound, teachers are equipped and well paid. There is then time for study, reflection, contemplation, self improvement and development.

Prosperity also enables men to act out their asperations. It enabled Solomon to build the most beautiful temple that ever graced God's earth. It enables Mr. Rank of Hull to maintain several missionaries abroad at his own expense; Carnegie to build libraries, and Rockefellow to endow education, missions and churches. Those of us who are poor can not do this.

This country has had a time of great prosperity. We may adopt the language of the Scriptures and say "God hath not dealt so with any nation" The population of this country is said to equal about five per cent. of the world's population and yet we raise 20 per cent. of all the world's wheat, 35 per cent. of all the world's production of coal 40 per cent. of all its pig-iron, 42 per cent of all its steel, 55 per cent. of all its petroleum, 70 per cent. of all its cotton and 79 per cent. of all its corn. The farmers have received this year three and a half billions of dollars for their produce; (figures which stagger us) and the forest and mines have produced another three billions of dollars, and our stores, factories, warehouses are crammed full of goods, the aggregate value of which cannot be known.

How is prosperity to be maintained?

It seems to be a general opinion that we have reached the height

More Holidays

County Clerk Fred L. Wright received word from Secretary of State Curry Saturday that the governor had decla red holidays for two weeks These holidays are in conformity with the law recently passed by the state legislature. This will allow the courts to transact business and the court calendars were called as usual Monday morning.

In response to a question submitted to him District Attorney Lea has rendered a decision to the effect that the "special" holidays provided for by the extraordinary session of the legislature do not affect the transaction of county business. On these days banks cannot be forced to pay money on deposit, nor can anybody be forced on these days to pay money due on contract. The county offices will be open and running as usual. The county treasurer's office is declared to be on the same basis as the banks with which the public funds are deposited

Interesting Lecture

On Wednesday evening of last week a very interesting lecture was given in the parlors of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club by Mrs. Greenleaf, of Long Beach, on the topics of old and new California.

The lecture was illustrated by fine stereopticon views. It is to be regretted that the Club was obliged to choose that evening for its lecture because only a small number of people were able to attend and enjoy it. Preparations for a grand New Years Ball are now in progress under the management of the committee consisting of Mrs G. Breitenbach, Mrs. C. Johnson and Mrs. P. McMullen. Fine music has been secured for the evening.

Degen-Land Wedding

At the home of the bride's parents, 1141 Linden St., Oakland, Miss Ruth Land was married to Mr. Thos. Degen of San Francisco, last Tuesday afternoon.

The bride is the eldest granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Twing, pioneer residents of this city, and is a beautiful and attractive girl. The groom is a well-to-do business man of the metropolis where the happy couple will make their home after a honeymoon trip in the Southern part of the State.

Mrs. Degen has often visited here and has made many warm friends who will join in wishing the fair bride and her husband a life of unalloyed happiness and prosperity.

Peter Hein's Will

Through his attorney R. A. Poppe, Fred Bulotti has petetioned for the probate of the will, of the late Peter C. Hein whose estate was valued at $250. The will was written by testator himself and was headed "Sonoma Creek Drawbridge". He leaves a part of his estate to the Sonoma Lodge I. O. O. F., a part to the Rebekah Lodge of Sonoma to which lodges be belonged. He also remembered a sister in the Fatherland, Bodit Marie Hein. In his will he asked that his remains be cremated

Perrine-Dutil Nuptials

Miss Adele Dutil of El Verano and Mr. Perrine of San Francisco, were quietly married last Saturday at the French Catholic Church in the metropolis.

Mr. Perrine is a prosperous business man in San Francisco and has often visited in this valley where he met the fair girl who is now his wife. Miss Dutil is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dutil of the French Cottage, El Verano, and a most charming and attractive girl.

Many Sonoma Valley friends extend hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Something Doing Here

The financial stringency dont seen to have affected Sonoma county very seriously judging from the number of deeds filed for record on Monday at the County Recorder's Office.

One hundred and twelve deeds, 42 mortgages, 11 chattel mortgages and a large number of contracts and miscellaneous documents the fees for filing these papers will be over $300.

Laid to Rest

All that was mortal of the late Mrs. J. L. Noe was laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery in Arcata last Sunday afternoon. The funeral services were held at the I. O. O. F. Hall, Rev. C. P. Hessel officiating, and the members of Forest Rebekah Lodge No. 147, I. O. O. F. of Blue Lake, of which deceased was a charter member, then took charge of the funeral and marched in a body to the cemetery, where the beautiful rituals of the order over a departed member were conducted. The choir at the services was composed of Mrs. Horton, Miss Rosa Smith, Mrs. Harpst and Messrs. C. S. Daniels and Bert Downs. Some beautiful floral pieces were in evidence and the large number of people in attendance was simply one of the many marks of esteem and love in which deceased was held by the community.

KIND WORDS FROM A FRIEND.

Mrs. Addie Brooks, of Sonoma, Cal., sent the Advocate the following verses to show the late Mrs. Alice Noe's many friends how dear she had become to the people there in the short time she was living in that vicinity:

TO MY DEAR LITTLE FRIENDS

I thought I would write a poem,
Something to carry comfort and cheer
To the hearts of three lovely children
Who had just lost a mother dear.
To me these children were neighbors,
I, perhaps, them again may never see,

But I want to send them this message
For all motherless children are alike dear to
For I know when they buried their mother fme
She was the best friend they ever will know
And many thorns are in the pathways
O'er which their feet must go.

For while you have your father
Who will always be good and kind;
The undying love of a mother
You never on earth again will find.
But think how much she suffered
And thank God that relief he gave
And follow her trusty footsteps
Till you meet beyond the grave.

Remember her faithful council
And treasure her memory dear,
And follow her good example
And you will have nothing to fear.
May God and angels help you all
Your bitter trials to bear
And prepare to meet your mother
All pure and spotless and fair.

So accept this kindly message
From a neighbor here of love,
Be gentle and kind to each other
For the sake of that mother above,
For I feel that she will see your actions
From her home in that summer land
That often her presence is near you
In a way you cannot understand.

Wanted to Die

William Dabner, the father of the "gaspipe" thug," died Wednesday week in a San Francisco hospital as the result of an operation. Deceased was heart-broken over the death sentence hanging over his son, and often expressed a wish that he might die before the young man was executed. It is stated that had he not been heartbroken he could easily have recovered from the operation. The funeral took place in Petaluma Saturday morning from St. Vincent's church.

Former Sonoma Boy Dead

George Gilbert, a former well known resident of this city, passed away suddenly in San Francisco last Sunday morning. A telegram to the aged parents in this city, brought the sad intelligence.

Deceased had been in business in the metropolis for several years past and was rated among the successful and influential men in commercial circles there.

The funeral took place from his late home last Tuesday.

Stricken with Apoplexy

Miss Mary Boggs, daughter of W. M. Boggs, a widely known Sonoma county pioneer, died last Friday at her home in Napa.

The deceased was suddenly stricken with apoplexy while using the telephone in her home. Prior to that time she was apparently well. She was born in old Sonoma in 1856. The Boggs family is one of the best known in Sonoma and Napa counties

Entertained Friends

Mine Host Ciucci of the Toscano Hotel had the pleasure of entertaining at dinner last Saturday a few of his Santa Rosa friends, among whom were F. M. Burris, cashier of Santa Rosa Bank, Ralph Leo Van Der Naillen, manager of Santa Rosa Electric Light and Gas Company and Oscar Matthews, of "The Grapevine." The writer was fortunate enough to be an invited guest and can vouch for the fact that the menu more than sustained the fame of the Toscano Hotel of Sonoma as a favorite resort for epicures.

prosperity—for the present. Now how shall we establish or maintain what we have? Rome, Carthage, Athens and Spain, were just as rich and prosperous at one time, but their prosperity passed away and ruin overshadowed them. Their Argosies came laden from every part. They could shoe their horses with silver and gold and luxury abounded on every hand. What was the secret of their fall and ruin? Unrighteousness; neglect of those great principles which make for permanence. "Righteousness" says God's word "exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." Jehoshaphet has found the secret of abiding prosperity. "Believe in God so shall ye be established; believe His prophets so shall ye prosper." He manifested his faith in God by sending teachers through out the land to proclaim and teach God's will to the people. The knowlege of God's will would be as a fulcrum to lift them up, and also a bulwark to safe-guard them from evils which wreck men and nations.

Not that righteous people have no evils or difficulties to face, they have many at times. In England under the Stuarts; in Holland under Philip II and the bloody Duke of Alva; in this country under George III, the righteous had many things to suffer and hardships to bear, yet these same people prospered and are prospering until this day. Believing in God and in the cause of right, they were valiant, strong, invincible. Prosperity from heaven has filled their gallant sails. The principles which they maintained made for nobility and stability.

Believe in God as Creator. Believe in Him as the Lord of this world commanding the forces of the ground producing the harvest. Believe in Him as giving the powers to get wealth. He gives the business talent, the capacity for great plans and schemes, and the great opportunity for making wealth.

Believe in his Fatherhood. Some say during the next seven years there is to be a great time of trial such as has never been witnessed. I don't endorse this, but if it is so, our Father, if honored by us, will not forsake us. Let us honor Him with our means, our time and talents, making His service our delight, and He will make our wants His care. Believe in holiness of life, heart and character, such as were shown to us by Jesus Christ who represented the Father.

Believe His prophets. Every writer of the Bible is a prophet in view of the fact that every prophet is primarily a teacher, what then have these prophets taught us concerning sin? That it is treacherous, seductive, ruinous, separating man from God and the soul from happiness; that "the wages of sin is death" to men and nations.

They have taught us that true prosperity is that which adds moral worth to character even though such works come in the form of affliction or disaster. The treasures of darkness are valuable and many of our best gifts come to us in black covered vans, "A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked."

They have also told us that ill-gotten gains are uuprofitable, "He that getteth riches and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days and in the end shall be a fool." Such may call themselves, or be called by their friends 'wise men' but heaven calls them fools; and God says to many such, "Thou fool, this night shall thy soul be required of thee, then, whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?"

In getting wealth, this moral question must not be shunned. It is reported that one newspaper man in San Francisco said a short time ago, "The moral issue be damned but give us prosperity." You can't damn the moral issue and prosper. "He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh and the Lord will have all such in derision" who make the foolhardy attempt.

This panic is largely due, we are told, by men who have deeply studied it, to men who have thus been "damning" the moral issue, trying to get rich quick and at any price. Unrighteous speculators, bloodsuckers, gamblers.

It is not due to God, for never was the country otherwise more productive. It is not due to the president of this country. He may have turned on the light and said if there has been prosperity at the expense of righteousness, prosperity must go, but this is only what God Himself has said and what has been repeated for thousands of years by his prophets and ministers. Sin, avarice, greed, the lust of gold, is the great cause of this trouble.

The prophets of God have told us that religion, or Godliness, is profitable unto all things. Yes, profitable even for business. It enjoins diligence in business, "Be not slothful in business," Godliness santifies business. It's principles are conducive to prosperity and happiness. Godliness is summed up in the Old Testament in the words—"Do justly, love, mercy and walk humbly with thy God." In the New Testament, "Thou shalt love the Lord with all thy heart, soul, mind and strength and thy neighbor as thyself."

The prophets have also emphasized man's responsibility to God for His stewardship. "Every man must give an account of himself to God." Ancient Jerusalem tried to shirk her duty and responsibility to God and "remembered not her latter end" says the Prophet Jeremiah "therefore she came down wonderfully." She was held responsible for her own destruction and thus God holds every man and nation responsible, "The heart's neglected duty brings sorrow to its cost."

Believe what the prophets have said concerning gratitude to God. We are to follow these same prophets in their conduct towards God and bless the Lord at all times, giving thanks at all times for all things. Even for the untoward things of life which add nobility to character.

The Apostle says, "In everything give thanks," not for everything give thanks, although this is possible to men of great grace. In everything we should give thanks. A farmer was trying to teach a man of his, this duty of gratitude and said that we should thank God for everything. This same farmer had a splendid calf on which he prided himself. One day he found the calf dead and telling his hired man what had happened he was astonished and hurt to hear the latter say, "Thank God for that." He might have thanked God that it was the calf instead of the cow. Matters may often be bad but they might have been worse. Let us thank God in all things that it is no worse for us.

An old lady in the poor house was being visited by a Christian man and he expected to find her like many others complaining of a hard lot. To his great surprise he found her bright and cheery and she exclaimed, "Oh, I have so much to be thankful for; I have still two teeth left and they even meet each other and that is much better than many of my comrades fare.'

Jesus wept and had his heart broken over the base ingratitude of his people. Let us not forget that thanksgiving to God means more than eating and drinking and spending Thanksgiving Day in selfish gratification. Brutes can do as much and no more is expected of them, but more is expected of God's people.

Believe what the prophets have taught us concerning charity and benevolence. "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord," and "Blessed is he that considereth the poor." There is that scattereth and yet increaseth, and there is that withholdeth more than is meet and and it tendeth to poverty. "Freely ye have received, freely give." "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver."

Believe also their teaching concerning the true claims of God's church. The claims of the temple were great and binding. It was true the repository of truth, a college of teachers, and a great educating and uplifting force and center. Has not the church of God today equally great claims when we consider what she stands for? Righteousness; safeguarding the home; salvation of men and women from sin. The church is the greatest civilizing factor and educating force morally or spiritually No other institution can meet the world's needs. Socialism fails to regenerate the human heart and a socialism that would rule out God is to be resisted by Christian men and women. The same thing is true concerning that religion (?) which would put Christ out of our day schools and a godly time honored motto from our national coins. Give God, the Bible, the church and your spiritual welfare a proper place in your lives. Seek ye the first kingdom of God and all other things shall be added unto you. Secure the treasure and paper will be provided in which to wrap it up. Believe His prophets and so shall ye prosper in time and eternity.

A CLEVER CAPTURE

Constable Jos. F. Ryan made a clever capture of a man accused of murder, Tuesday afternoon. On Oct. 18, of this year, Sheriff Donahue of Mendocino Co., sent out postals giving a picture and desription of one, Americo Baldocchi, an Italian, about 40 years of age, dark hair, dark mustache, red cheeks, height, about 5 feet 6 inches. and weight 160 lbs.

The accused was last seen near Asti, in this county on Oct. 15 last and had not been seen or heard since then. Our ever alert constable got track of the man and drove up into the hills northwest of town on Tuesday and found his man sledding out wood on the Smith ranch away back in the mountains northwest of town. Dep. Sheriff Ryan heard a man coming down the wood road and immediately stepped into the brush along side of the road. When the sought-for man came in sight, he suddenly found himself looking down the barrels of a shot gun in the hands of the officer. The command, "Throw up your hands and surrender," was obeyed with alacrity. He arrested him and brought him to this city and placed him in jail. Wednesday morning he took the prisoner to Santa Rosa.

According to the story, Americo Baldocchi shot to death a man by the name of Cinquini in Elk, Mendocino Co., last October. After the killing, Baldocchi left and has not been located since except as above stated. When arrested, he admitted to the officer that he killed Cinquini but said it was in self defense, showing scars on his head and neck which he said were made by Cinquini before the shooting.

Rumor has it that there was a married woman in the case, all of which will be brought out more definitely at the trial before the Superior Court of the northern county.

The reward offered for his apprehension is now due our popular local officer.

The Vital Point

To consider when buying a heater is the draft. Exhaustive tests prove that the down-draft as it is developed in the celebrated is the only form that insures perfect combustion at a minimum of fuel expense. Furnishes twice the heat from half the amount of fuel used, because all gas generated is burned. In other heaters it escapes into the chimney.

NATURE'S ESSENCE.

Extracted From Forest Plants.

Nature's laws are perfect if we obey them, but disease follows disobedience. Go straight to nature for the cure, to the forest; there are mysteries here that we can fathom for you. Take the bark of the black-cherry tree, the root of mandrake, stone root, queen's root, bloodroot and golden seal root, make a scientific, non-alcoholic extract of them with just the right proportions and you have Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It took Dr. Pierce, with the assistance of two learned chemists, eight years of hard work experimenting to make this vegetable extract and alterative of the greatest efficiency.

Just the sort of remedy you need to make rich, red blood, and cure that lassitude and feeling of nerve exhaustion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery bears the stamp of PUBLIC APPROVAL and has sold more largely in the past forty years than any other blood purifier and stomach tonic. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is purified and enriched—the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated in the system. Doctor R. V. Pierce, the founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N.Y., and a physician of large experience and practice, was the first to make up an alterative extract of native medicinal roots, WITHOUT A PARTICLE OF ALCOHOL, which purifies the blood and tones up the stomach and the entire system in Nature's own way. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is just the tissue builder and tonic you require when recovering from a hard cold, grip, pneumonia, or from a debilitating fever. No matter how strong the constitution the stomach is apt to get "out of kilter" now and then, and in consequence the blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body, and so cures liver and kidney troubles. If you take this NATURAL BLOOD PURIFIER AND NERVE TONIC you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, arterial blood that is invigorating to the brain and nerves. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which over-worked people experience is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin—you feel "blue." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all blood humors as well as being a tonic that makes one vigorous, strong and forceful. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery STANDS ALONE as the one medicine for stomach, liver and blood disorders that has the ingredients printed upon the wrapper of every bottle leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., which cures in Nature's own way; not only does it STAND ALONE in respect to its ingredients being known, but also as the only tonic and restorative which absolutely contains no alcohol.

"I was taken with a severe cough, weakness in my back, a 'glimmer' over the eyes, had a bad breath, and stomach was out of order," writes H. Gaddis, of 1423 South Tanna Avenue, Tacoma, Wash. "I felt sluggish, did not care for anything, had no life, it was almost misery to move, appetite very poor. I read Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser and went right away and purchased two bottles of his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and before I had taken all of one bottle I felt better. If any doubt the truth of this testimonial they may write to me."

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure bad, foul stomach and constipation and so help to cure nearly every disease of mankind. They regulate, tone up and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Breeding for Eggs

In an experiment begun nine years ago the Maine Agricultural Station has been increasing the egg laying capacity of its poultry. The first year 52 trap-nest and 140 pullets were employed. The work has been extended until now 200 trap-nests are in use by 1000 hens. By the trap-nest it is possible to know the exact daily work which every hen is doing.

In one year forward from that date the 140 birds laid an average of 120 eggs each. Twenty-five laid over 160 each, and less than 100 each. Hen No. 36 laid 201 eggs; No. 101 laid 204, and No. 286 laid 206 eggs. The eggs of No. 36 were light in color and she was therefore rejected as a breeder.

At the commencement of the next breeding season, 1900. Nos. 101 and 286 were mated with males that were unrelated to them, or to each other. The cockerels raised from the eggs of these two birds were the first males produced for use in this work In the early spring of 1901 several sons of hen No. 286 raised the previous year, were mated with the 24 two-year-old hens that laid 160 eggs and over each during 1899, and 25 others that laid 160 or over during the 1900 test.

No female has been used in the breeding pens for six years whose mother did not lay at least 160 eggs in her pullet year. No males have been used as breeders unless their mothers laid about 200 eggs per year. The breeding pens are now filled with birds of both sexes that have six generations of mothers and fathers before them that were bred under these rigid rules of selection.

The stock commenced with in 1893 had been laying about 120 eggs each per year for several years, as shown by the flock records. During the last two years the hens have averaged 144 eggs each during their pullet year. The producing capacities of the hens have been increased about two dozen eggs per year. Perhaps this increase is not all due to the selection and breeding. The dry feeding and open air housing doubtless have contributed to the improvement. Not a drone or small producer has had a place in the breeding of these birds in six generations. During only one season, and then with but two small pens, have birds as closely related as cousins been bred together. Line breeding is followe, the matings being only with distantly related birds. The birds are vigorous, of good size, and able to stand up under hard work. They have good, large yellow beaks. They are well feathered and barred, but they are not bred for the fanciers or the show room.

Interest in Eucalypts

There is a growing interest in the culture of eucalypts all over the State, and in Northern California especially, everything that relates to the growth of this valuable group of trees is sought with avidity. In view of this, we draw attention to a leaflet recently issued by the Forest Bureau of the Department of Agriculture, and which contains a great deal of valuable information concerning this tree. Any of our readers who are interested can procure this publication by addressing Gifford Pinchot, chief of the Forestry Bureau, Washington, D. C.

Danger in Asking Advice

When you have a cough or cold do not ask some one what is good for it, as there is danger in taking some unknown preparation. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs, colds and prevents pneumonia. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. L. S Simmons.

Sonoma County Prune Yield

Ten million pounds of dried prunes valued at $500,000, is the estimate of this year's prune yield in Sonoma county. While the crop was small the price paid was good and what it lacked in quantity was made up in quality and financial returns. The sizes ran large and the average price was five cents per pound. Of course some prunes went considerably higher.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy Repeated

The Boss says, "The most successful man is the one that knows how to finance his brains." That's one thing you'll find about our goods; every little detail is carefully thought out.

In our underwear the buttons and buttonholes, the taping and reinforcing are all of the best. In our shirts, the matching of the stripes, the laundry work, the finish, etc., is always the best, because we demand it and return the goods if ther're not up to the standard. Its the same with hats; the bands and bindings have to be the best, the sweat leather of good quality, and every hat is carefully examined when received; the least imperfection sends it back to the factory. I don't believe there's a store any where that watches the customers interests as carefully as they do here.

The boss could'nt guarantee every article he sells (as he does) if he did'nt do business with the best manufacturers demand certain improvements and pay extra prices to get them. I don't believe you ever heard of a man who got a doubtful article at The Racket Store, if he did, we want to know it. We want a chance to make it right.
